God's Privileged One

After the dark night the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth. To a virgin named in a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the child's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary; for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and shalt bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord shall dignify unto him the throne of his father David. They said they unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I have not known? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God; for with God nothing shall be impossible. And they said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; for I am according to thy word. Luke 1:26-38, 49-52, 56-57, 57-58

In the beginning, when God made man,

The Trinity acted alone.

In His image created He him,

Observed His work, then proclaimed: "Well done!"

But the sin of Adam did marred

A "second Adam" who would "bring us in,"

Only He could pay the price

To redeem the souls of men.

In other men, He's Redeemed

And revealed His redemption plan

In contrast to His beginning work,

For His Adam He'd see a living hand.

For the Holy Ghost, a privileged one

Who did no work to bring from God

For in a night, yes, but you'll know His love

For with His love, you'll be a hand.

An indispensible lesson from their two events

For those who the do God do

The Unimportant One, He needs no help

For in them, His privilege to come He'll give.

Each has the potential of being a Privileged one,

And in a night, you'll know His love

For in a night, yes, but you'll know His love

For with His love, you'll be a hand.

Then on That Day, the glorious Day

When they stand before His throne,

His ultimate reward to a Privileged one:

"My beloved servant, well done!"
