

Established in 2014 and incorporated in 2015, for over 40 years, the Center for the Creation And Family Teaching Organization (C.R.A.F.T., Inc.) has offered to the inclusion of developing and implementing programs directed towards building a stronger, more productive African-American community.

For those more than 40 years, God has blessed C.R.A.F.T. to continue to be faithful to the vision set by the Founder, Rev. Rev. Dr. Study, Jr. Sometimes, we all need to be reminded that:

Living & Giving

*Two identical species, of various birth
Yet share personalities differently, and birth*

*One, inspiring life, an engaging smile
The other death, disrupted paths*

*One reaches their others, but gives limited
The other takes, not gives, designed*

*The good few selfish? They designed it that,
The lesser pain on the need's own
To others and keeps, the world it want*

*But the better it's no stand here
No selfishness, no obsequious
Always willing, being, and giving
Experiencing its privilege...the joy of being!*

*For "Good" can become "Selfish"
When "Self" and "Me"
Become "Them" and "We".*

*Concerned the plight of others and brothers
We find the meaning of being
After we're helping others!*

Rev. Rev. Dr. Study, Jr. (2019)

As we are reminded daily of the plight of our young brothers and sisters, the C.R.A.F.T. Board of Directors encourage you to reflect on Rev. Study's poem and commit/commitment to doing what YOU can to "help others" by giving to the organization.
